Adelphi og Ardnamurchan

Gjengen hos Adelphi og Ardnamurchan fant ut at de måtte sjekke om gresset var grønnere på andre siden av gjerdet, så de sa takk for seg, etter at vi har bygget merkene deres i Norge i 14 år. Vi hadde jo bygget litt lager, ikke minst av Ardnamurchan-tappinger, som det nå er ikke er fullt så interessant å sitte på. De som overtar ville ikke ha noe særlig av tappingene, så da blir det opphørssalg. De første 4 får nye priser fra 1. juni. Resten kommer etter hvert.

Starward 5 ans Apera Single Cask Conquête

Australsk whisky, Single malt whisky

On both the nose and the palate, this version brings to mind a delicious sweet wine and is constantly refreshed by an outstanding fruity bitterness dominated by citrus fruit. This unified bittersweet tone reaches its peak in an extremely rich and beautifully mature finish. All of which is accompanied by superb floral and spicy sequences.

Farge: Topas

Aroma: Full-bodied, unctuous. The pleasantly chocolate first nose is also characterized by notes of polish (beeswax), apricot, orange, verbena and juniper. Allowed to breathe, iris butter provides a particularly concentrated and heady signature. Note a lovely bitterness that evokes citrus fruit and cocoa powder. Gradually the nose becomes increasingly medicinal and camphoric.

Smak: Svelte, invigorating. Mentholated and for its part characterized by a beautiful bitterness (cinchona), the attack wavers between noble spices (cardamom, curry), orange blossom, rose petal and cinnamon. The fruity register gradually takes the clear upper hand with orange, apple, Mirabelle plum and greengage plum. A wonderful herbal tea aftertaste (bay leaf, orange blossom liqueur).

Ettersmak: Long, rich. At the start of the finish, it is impossible to choose between peach tart, strawberry tart and Black Forest gâteau, and the best option is to take them all. Outstanding. This is followed by a very pleasant herbaceous (tobacco), spicy (ginger, cinnamon) and tertiary (lichen, chestnut) sequence. The retro-nasal olfaction is softened by notes of latte and lavender honey. The empty glass is delicately woody, floral (iris) and chocolatey.

Providence Dunder & Syrup

Providence Dunder & Syrup

Rom, Lys rom

Farge: colourless

Aroma: both refined and concentrated. The first nose is characterized by notes of red fruits (cherry and wild strawberry) and also gently peppery and lemony. Allowed to breathe, it reveals fragrances of an especially floral cane juice (purple lilac, bougainvillea). The deliciously honeyed aroma palette (lavender, geranium) gradually becomes finely liquorice and mineral (basalt, schist).

Smak: full-bodied, dynamic. The divinely apricot attack is also creamy and rich (vanilla flan, raspberry cream cake). On the mid-palate, strong spices (nutmeg, clove), artichoke heart and crisp cherry create an extremely flavourful sequence of flavours. The hues found on the end of the palate rest for a long time on the cherries' bright-red colour.

Ettersmak: long, fresh. At the start of the finish, a delicious cane syrup releases its sweet and floral flavours on the palate. The end of the finish is characterized by notes of cinnamon, fresh coriander and macadamia. The deliciously vanilla retro-nasal olfaction returns to the floral tones (carnation, phlox, hyacinth) of a rich yet subtle spirit. The empty glass is mentholated as well as floral (vine flower, lily of the valley) and fruity (peach, apricot, cherry).

Bowmore 22 ans 1998 Conquête B. Bros

Skotsk whisky, Single malt whisky

Farge: bright gold.

Aroma: vanilla crisp with gentle floral notes.

Smak: balanced, noble. The impressive attack is very much in keeping with the nose in terms of its complexity and sophistication as well as the way peat slips into every fruity, vanilla, floral, milky, spicy, herbaceous, iodine and salty note in the flavour palette. The end of the palate reveals a bouquet of white flowers that release enchanting fragrances.

Ettersmak: long, rich. At the start of the finish, a liquorice, vegetal (silt, reed) and more oily than salty peat delicately envelops the taste buds. In its wake come the candied lemon, William's pear, vanilla and coriander from the first nose. The circle is complete. The retro-nasal olfaction and empty glass release aromas of fermentation and spirit as it runs through the spirit still.

Ledaig 12 ans 2009 Conquête Hidden Spirits

Ledaig 12 ans 2009 Conquête Hidden Spirits

Skotsk whisky, Single malt whisky

Farge: almost colourless.

Aroma: powerful, typical. Bacon, smoked fish, creosote, musk, peat deeply rooted in a granite soil, and ash. As well as lemon, acacia honey, a delicious vanilla ice cream, juicy pear, and freshly cut grass. Followed by orange zest, dandelion, juniper berry, fresh walnut, turpentine, liquorice, black pepper, camphor and tiger balm. This Ledaig has an expressive nose to say the least.

Smak: lively, precise. On the attack, the medicinal peat (mustard, clove) that unceremoniously zigzags across the palate has something of the dentist's office about it. This is sure to be a hit with fans. On the mid-palate, soot spreads across the sides of the palate. The increasingly milky (almond), fermentary (barley pulp) and mentholated (Vicks Vaporub) end of the palate moves closer to the sea's edge (iodine, seaweed, shellfish).

Ettersmak: long, assertive. At the start of the finish, acacia honey and a few slices of juicy pineapple beat a path that refreshes the taste buds. Next, green liquorice and notes of damp straw take us to firm ground. Peat flies high above the very end of the finish. The mineral (chalk), empyreumatic (sleet, burnt wood) and sooty retro-nasal olfaction boasts impressive length. The empty glass is peaty/chocolatey, vanilla/fruity and aniseedy/mentholated.

AMRUT Greedy Angels 12 yo 2022

Indisk whisky, Single malt whisky

Farge: Golden

Aroma: This is a typical complex whisky with a strong nose of dark plums, prunes and melons. Then there is an emergence of coconut and marzipan joined at the hip by dark chocolate. The vanilla and sweet orange combination pops out slowly. There is a shade of tropical fruits too! It is very clear as to how the reversal maturation process worked with the evidence of prunes and dark chocolate.

Smak: To start with, there is a clear shout by the dark chocolate followed by marzipan and golden syrup. There are follow up notes of creamy vanilla pods and honey and combined with tropical fruits and orangey citrus that are super soft. There is a shade of minty note suggesting the tropical age of this age old whisky.

Ettersmak: There you go, that minty note is refusing to go away with a very refreshing note on the palate.

Fransk whisky, Single malt whisky

Farge: Amber

Aroma: Powerful and deep. Magnificent combination on the attack between honey pastries and passion fruit. A few empyreumatic notes of leather and caramelized sugar, accompanied by cinnamon, then prolong the experience.

Smak: Rich. The attack is honeyed with an exacerbated sweetness. We then find the empyreumatic notes, which evolve on liquorice, figs, in an exceptional volume.

Ettersmak: Formidably complex. Very long and spicy, it reveals a smoky character mingling with the fruitiness of the distillate.

Fransk whisky, Single malt whisky

Farge: Amber

Aroma: Rich and complex. The notes of fruit (apricot, candied orange) are accompanied by pepper and almond, enhanced by a slight hint of peat and Sherry.

Smak: Gourmet and tasty. Fruity attack on citrus fruits, accompanied by aromas of coffee. The roundness then arrives with notes of honey, aromatic plants and a touch of smoke.

Ettersmak: Prolonged. Very long, the finish is both sweet with a hint of honey, saline and marked with notes of cashew nuts and pepper.

VH 86011613, Pris: 642,00, 70 cl, 46 %

Skotsk whisky, Single malt whisky

Aroma: elegant, ethereal. The truly outstanding first nose brings notes of marmalade, rose petal, purple lilac and very ripe mango. Allowed to breathe, it becomes spicy (pepper, clove), camphoric and even more floral (freesia, hyacinth, lime blossom). Gradually, candy sugar and a fine layer of caramel cover the surface of the aroma palette. Apricot and quince jelly arrive in the finale.

Smak: distinguished, full of energy. Beginning exactly where the nose left off, the attack also allows a glimpse of the beautifully clear and fruity spirit (pear, kirsch). On the mid-palate, frangipane, cocoa and tobacco spread harmoniously across the sides of the palate. At the end of the palate, red fruits (raspberry, strawberry) and dark chocolate rival each other in intensity.

Ettersmak: long, silky. The very slightly tannic start of the finish is characterized by notes of prune, toast and beeswax. Sprinkled with nutmeg and chocolate chips, the finish also evokes a very high-quality black tea. Beaming with herbaceous freshness, the retro-nasal olfaction returns to the notes of tobacco found on the mid-palate (smoking Havana cigar). The empty glass is malty, roasted (coffee, tonka bean) and resinous (thuja, cedar).

Laphroaig 18 ans 2001 LMDW The Little Big Book - Signatory

Skotsk whisky, Single malt whisky

Farge: Greenish gold.

Aroma: clean, complex. On the first nose, traces of rubber, intense smoke and gentian root dig furrows into an anthracite-coloured peat. Allowed to breathe, this peat becomes more oily and medicinal (band-aid, merbromin), salty and even hot (cayenne). Gradually, the gamy character takes over (smoked fish and bacon). At the same time, the aromatic palette is undeniably jaunty, spring-like and bright.

Smak: powerful, lively. On the attack, blocks of chocolatey peat roll across the palate. Immediately after, iodine tincture and mustard seed bring lots of vitality. The mid-palate is a subtle mixture of herbaceous (hay, malted barley), fruity (pear, Golden Delicious) and vanilla sequences. At the end of the palate, a subtle liqueur of acacia honey and roasted pineapple unctuously floods the entire palette of flavours.

Ettersmak: long, generous. In archetypal Laphroaig style, the start of the finish is peaty/chocolatey, fruity, iodine and phenolic (hydrocarbon, sleet). Rooted in its terroir (gentian, ginger), in a mineral-rich soil. A handful of dried fruits (almond, walnut) and citrus fruits (lemon, grapefruit) dominate the very dynamic end of the palate. On the retro-nasal olfaction, coconut milk, ash and aromatic plants (sage, verbena) stand out for their intensity. The empty glass is vegetal (Havana cigar) and chocolatey.
